

I do not want the Indiana Privacy Law to be changed in any way. For the first time in years, my family can enjoy quiet time at dinner without answering telemarketers. We used to receive 10 to 12 calls a week. Most of them were from credit card companies requesting permission to open up accounts. Please do not retreat backwards on something that everyone wants and expects. Bonnie J. Getty